This book, Be Prepared: A Practical Handbook For New Dads, was written for him, I just know it. He has pretty much read through this whole book already, and really liked it. He found it to be helpful, easy to read and really informative...he actually feels more prepared.

Be Prepared: A Practical Handbook For New Dads

Be Prepared follows that template pretty closely, and that's really quite an acceptable thing. Yes, there's a bit too much emphasis here on broadly drawn manly stuff like changing a diaper at a ballgame, but there's also heaps of useful advice that's cleverly and efficiently presented for pops who, despite their best intentions, really aren't prepared to dig into encyclopedia-sized tomes.
