'But Not Forgotten' really blew me away. I was pulled in from the very first page. The story line was incredible. Well written and well played out. The characters are a great cast of personalities. Clint makes the best lead. He's good looking, dependable, has demons and secrets and makes an awesome detective/cop. Susan is an absolute ace.

Simply cold-calling a client to reveal you've messed up probably won't go over so well, and not being prepared for a difficult discussion won't pan out how you imagined, either. Also, sharing too much—or too little—detail about the chain of events can easily take a problem from bad to worse in a hurry. Deciding to own up to your ...
