Have owned 2 tributes
2003 and 2004.... Both maintenance free .

Plenty of room for golf clubs. Which is a must .
Most SUV's of this size cost more and are smaller. Still wonder why Mazda stop
making them.

2004 Mazda Tribute I love the smooth drive, comfortable seating and all the space in the back for hauling things. The heating and a/c heat up and cool down quickly. The only thing I would change is adding air vents in the back because the people in the back of the car only have the heat/air from the vents in the front of the car.
