My hair is thick, wavy, and black as spider legs. I'm only thirteen and I have thicker hair on my arms and legs than most boys on the Tanglewood Junior High football team. My big sister and I are practically the same in every other way. But she got the peach fuzz and I got black bristles—all over. Arms, legs, chest, face...and even down there.

This is my daily look and the price of the unit is very affordable. Many women have asked me who my hairstylist is or they have mistaken the unit for my natural hair or a very good weave. Many say the unit is thin, which I like. I think thick units look very wiggy. Also, I have a sweaty head.

I recently got my hair done at My Sistah's and Me 24hr Hair Braiding salon. My appointment was for 2pm, but I arrived about 30 minutes early hoping maybe I could get into a chair earlier. It didn't happen but I wasn't upset because of course my appointment was made for 2pm, and not 1:30pm. The shop was very busy; it was a Saturday.
