Labels: books, SF Said, Varjak Paw, World Book Day. Tuesday, 23 February 2021. A Message For World Book Day 2021. Usually on World Book Day, I'd be visiting schools, talking to classes about reading and books. This year, because of the lockdown, that won't be possible – so instead, I've made a World Book Day video, all about reading and books! This video is absolutely free for anyone to ...

SF SAID

Author SF Said is a writer we can learn from, particularly in the way he creates gripping moments of tension and his detailed descriptive passages. Varjak Paw is written as a series of relatively brief chapters so lends itself to a serialised read over a period of time. This gives you the opportunity to model to upper KS2 pupils how to read aloud with fluency, accuracy and expression. Don't ...

SF Said said: "I read Watership Down as a child. It was my favourite book, and inspired me to become a writer myself. I re-read it for the first time just after I finished writing Varjak Paw, and was stunned to see how deeply it had shaped my imagination; there would certainly be no Varjak Paw without Watership Down. I believe it has shaped our entire culture, as only the greatest literature ...
